CONDITIONS IMPROVING.

Lifted Soon.

St. Albans, Feb. 8.-The physicians of the city feel confident that the crisis of the epidemic of sore throat which last lie statutes, relating to proving wills week caused the closing of the schools, theatres, movies and churches, has passed its climax and that things are so on the mend that the quarantine will be lifted in a few days. The impression seems to have grown up around the state that stores, shops and all manner of business has been suspended, but that is not the case, these places not having been suspended in their operations for a single day. Those suffering from the trouble are being quarantined in their homes and the situation is now well in hand. The city has quite regained its normal activities in almost all regards.

Price of Commodities in Brattleboro.

Sugar is eight and a half to nine cents a pound at retail in Brattleboro and a limit of five pounds to a customer was set Tuesday by practically all the retail stores in town.

Potatoes are retailing anywhere between $3 and $3.50 a bushel and cannot be bought to-day for less than those figures at wholesale.
